A young male refugee

The Migration Yorkshire (UKRA) project is a collaborative effort between the Yorkshire and the Humber region and the UK Home Office. It aims to support and assist Ukrainian refugees who have fled their home country due to the conflict. The project provides a range of services, including accommodation, food, clothing, and financial support. It also offers advice and guidance on the asylum process and helps refugees to integrate into the local community. The project is a testament to the resilience and generosity of the Yorkshire and the Humber region in supporting those in need.
